HIRE from 1A

Kieffer questioned the timing of hiring a public safety director after the illegal 3-2 vote by the board which was never consummated in public.

Coleman said, pending the further action by the commission, he would support a recall effort against all the county commissioners excluding Kieffer.

ADVICE from 1A

Commissioner Andy Anderson said the GMRDC study would have an impact on some proposed projects.

Road projects, library branches, parks and recreation facilities, historical and cultural facilities, additions to the courthouse and the administration building, and water and sewer improvements are listed on the draft for county SPLOST projects.

The city has listed improvements to city hall, road improvements and recreation.

Water intake tops the list of county's list of priority projects with road improvements next followed by additional library branches.

Regarding water, Gravitt said it is separate issue entirely.

REWARD from 1A

Levi Frady was found Oct. 23 in a Dawson County forest where he died from a gunshot wound. Investigators have been looking for his killer.

Milton Frady has been on the run from investigators since the 1994 burglary.

After Levi's death, the search for his father intensified. Milton's whereabouts the night of the murder were unknown.

Investigators wanted to know what, if anything, he knew about the case.

While in custody, Frady was questioned by investigators from all three agencies. Dawson County Sheriff Billy Carlisle would not give details about his interview with Frady, but said Frady "cleared up some areas where we had questions."

None of the representatives from the three investigative agencies will say Frady has been cleared as a suspect. However, all three maintain everyone in and near the family has been questioned and are considered suspects at this time.

The investigation was expanded last week to include anyone traveling through the North Forsyth area near Frady's home and at Dawson Forest Road and Hwy. 9, near the site where three Gilmer County hunters found the child's body.

Other hunters on the state wildlife management property that day have been questioned, but the GBI has ruled out an accidental shooting.

Anyone with information should contact the Dawson County tipline at (800) 432-9284, the Forsyth County Crime Stoppers at 888-7308 or the GBI at 535-5423.

Kroger saves the day for South Forsyth Band

Investigators seek answers about guns

By Michael Kurtz
Staff Writer

More than $22,000 worth of guns has been reported as stolen from a Castleberry road home – the site of the Oct. 1 murder-suicide of Tommy Pruitt and Tracy Meehan.

According to Sheriff's Office reports, the guns were kept in a locker inside a trailer parked next to the residence. There was no sign of forced entry into either the locker or the trailer.

They were stolen sometime between Oct. 19-23. The missing weapons include a Phoenix Arms pistol, a Marlin rifle, a Ruger mini-rifle, a Ruger Mark II rifle, a Norinco Poly rifle and a Winchester rifle.

Nothing else was reported stolen from the residence.

Sheriff's Office spokesperson Karleen Chalker said investigators are still looking into the previous history of the .45-caliber handgun used in the Oct. 1 incident.

Pruitt was reportedly on parole and was prohibited by law from owning a firearm. Investigators are trying to find out where he got the gun. Pruitt had also owned the guns stolen during the theft, state reports.

Goody's set to open on Thursday

The new 28,000-square-foot Goody's department store in the Cumming Market Place on Hwy. 20 is holding its grand opening celebration on Thursday, Nov. 6.

A Sunday story in the Forsyth County News carried the wrong opening date, which brought shoppers and the fire marshal to the store early.

Shoppers who come to the Thursday opening will get a chance to win a $1,400, 46-inch, big-screen TV. The store also will give away a Saturn car.

Three vacation trips, $25 gift certificates will be awarded every hour all day.

On Monday, store personnel remained busy readying stock for the Thursday opening events.

Robin Pirkle, Tammy Bagley, Betty Mack are busy at Goody's.

Bowers to speak to Republicans

Michael Bowers, candidate for the office of Governor, will be addressing the Republican Party of Forsyth County at its Nov. 6 meeting.

All interested persons are invited and encouraged to attend. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m., at the Kiwanis Club Building on Pilgrim Mill Road. For information, call Anna McManus at 887-8596.

Correction

The Forsyth County Planning Commission is scheduled to meet Nov. 5 to make recommendations for two rezonings included in recent stories.

A 481-acre rezoning request have been filed for Fox Creek Properties. Fox Creek is a proposed golf course community.

Atlantic Gulf Communities has proposed that just more than 1,000 acres be rezoned to provide for shopping centers, 175 acres of recreational space and other amenities for the three villages of the Daves Creek Community.

The stories confused certain aspects of the two projects which resulted from reporting errors, and we apologize for those errors.

McDonald & Sons Funeral Home

We would like to say a very special thank you to Lauren McDonald and Paul Cambell, the owner and staff at McDonald and Sons Funeral Home.

Recently we lost a very special part of our family. During this difficult time we could not have asked for two more kind and caring people to help us in making the arrangements and being there for the family. Their kindness and all the little things they've done meant so much at a time like this & made a very difficult time a little more bearable.

We cannot put into words how much these two men mean to our family and we hope that the community will give them the chance they deserve.

Sincerely, The Meniza Ruis Little Family
